

Allowing SBC to escape regulatory review is unacceptable. The broadband industry needs as much competition as possible. Allowing SBC to squash small ISPs is very bad, these ISPs deliver extremely high levels of service and effective one on one support of the customers. I am sure SBC will say they do all of this as ... and that's not true. That's why I try and use small ISPs whenever possible. Please continue to regulate the broadband industry.